

INTRODUCTION

It is my pleasure to introduce author and speaker Greg Bell. Greg infuses everything he does with passion and humor and specializes in working to transform both people and organizations. Greg is the author of two books: What's Going Well?: The Question That Changes Everything and Water The Bamboo®: Unleashing the Potential of Teams and Individuals. He is a Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), the highest earned designation for the National Speakers Association and International Federation of Professional Speakers. Only 10% of speakers have earned this designation.

Greg has shared his ideas with tens of thousands of people and has served as a consultant and trainer for almost 500 organizations around the country. His keynotes and seminars provide inspiration and practical skills for individuals and organizations who want to achieve extraordinary results.

Greg earned both his Political Science and his Law degrees at the University of Oregon, and it was while there, as a competitive athlete in basketball, that he learned about the critical importance of teamwork and great coaching. As a result, he was consistently named Inspirational Player of the Year throughout his athletic career. He is also the force behind Coaches vs. Cancer — a campaign for the American Cancer Society that has raised over $100 million for cancer research.

Please join me in welcoming our presenter, Greg Bell.
